Dear WCS Board Members,

I have met with many of you, and others I still look forward to meeting. I appreciate each one of you that carved out the time for your constituents in our group. I realize that "Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion" can present tricky waters to navigate, as the devil is in the details with these words. Namely, it depends on who is defining them. Indeed, our parents have been putting in the time to educate themselves on these subjects so as to better articulate these points to you, their board members. I hope you will applaud them for the hours they have committed to this, as there are never enough hours in the day. Additionally, I'm sure you've heard that many find Wit and Wisdom to be highly problematic, as well.

That said, this journey has shown me that there exists a great need in Williamson County to educate the general parental public on the nuances of these words (Diversity, Equity and Inclusion) and also the nuances of Critical Race Theory, as they are one and the same. As I said before, the devil is in the details.

I would like to cordially invite each one of you to attend our CRT101 event on May 19th. Please find attached our flyer with pertinent details. It's not a rally, or anything of that nature. Rather, it's a series of presentations on the subject:

Dr. Wenyuan Wu - formerly taught Critical Race Theory at the college level
Dr. Beth Meyers - a scholar of the Wit and Wisdom curriculum
Dr. Gary Thompson - professor of child psychology
Panel Q&A session

I encourage you to come check it out.

Respectfully,
Robin Steenman
