Subject: Civil Rights in Education Virtual Summit with Keynotes by Dr. Gloria Ladson-Billings and Percy Brown

WARNING: EXTERNAL EMAIL - THIS EMAIL DID NOT ORIGINATE FROM WCS

Good morning!

We are four weeks from our HUGE Civil Rights in Education Virtual Summit!

In addition to the two incredible keynotes, the Civil Rights in Education Virtual Summit, which will be held on February 21st and 22nd, also has 16 unique breakout sessions! The Summit is designed to address disparities in student experiences and academic achievement in schools. The Summit will have a variety of sessions led by current practitioners who will provide knowledge and practical strategies that will help educators reach "Every Kid. Every Day. Every Way." Internationally renowned educator, Dr. Gloria Ladson-Billings, will kick off the Summit by providing her perspective on the State of Education in 2022.

Topics Include:

- Leading for Equity (District, Building and Teacher Levels)
- Restorative Practices
- Family and Community Engagement
- Student Voice and Choice
- Multilingualism in Schools
- Hip Hop Education
- Equitable Practices in High School Athletics

Participants will leave with strategies, deepened awareness and a strengthened commitment to take collective action in their respective school districts to eliminate barriers associated with the predictability of success based on but not limited to race, class and first language.

Click on the link below to see the event page, as well as the detailed agenda. The entire event will be recorded, with access to the recordings until April 1st, 2022. The cost for an individual is $300, and the cost for an entire school to access the event (and recordings) is $1,500.
