

From: Summer Carter <[REDACTED]>

Sent: 12/7/2021 12:35:44 PM

To: Jason Golden <[REDACTED]>

Subject: REMINDER: A webinar about helping students understand the histories and experiences of African Americans.

WARNING: EXTERNAL EMAIL - THIS EMAIL DID NOT ORIGINATE FROM WCS

A grayscale background image showing a group of diverse students sitting at desks in a classroom, looking towards the right side of the frame.

The Harlem Renaissance: A Celebration of Culture or Call to Action? (12/7/21)

Register Here

Discover the Harlem Renaissance

The arts, performance, literacy, or visual serve to celebrate culture or call people to action. As we think about the cultural movement known as the Harlem Renaissance, we are forced to ask ourselves, "What is the lasting impact of the Harlem Renaissance on American culture and society?" Is it a celebration of culture or a call to action?

Through a series of activities, participants will examine the achievements of the key figures of the movement. Furthermore, participants will extend their new learning to make connections between these individuals of the Harlem Renaissance and artist today.

This webinar is number three in our "Teaching the American Spirit" series.

12/7/2021

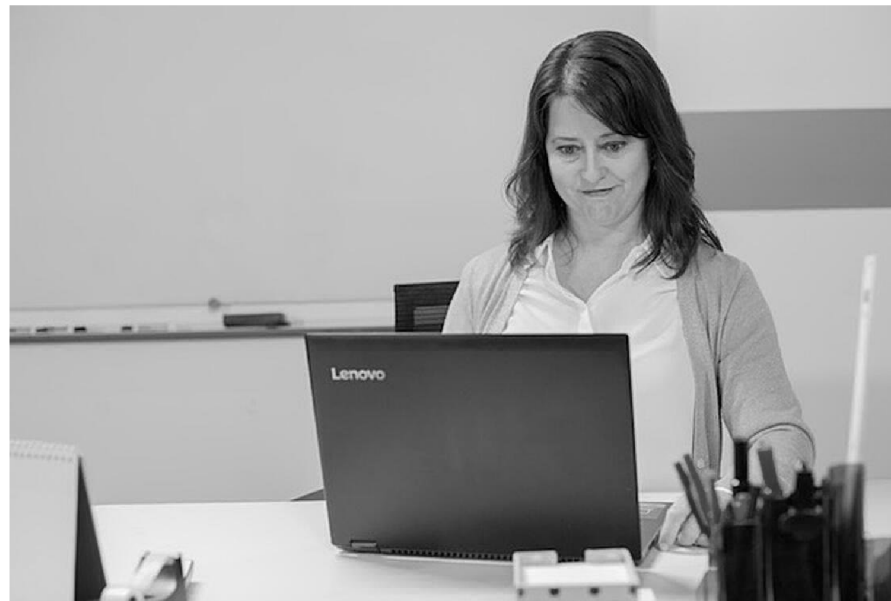

The Harlem Renaissance: A Celebration of Culture or Call to Action? (12/8/21)

3:00–4:00 p.m. (PT)

Register Here

Conquer Hybrid and Remote Teaching

We are offering free lessons designed to enhance your remote or hybrid classroom. Explore our range of topics, download the ones that work for your students, and keep an eye out for more to come!

Explore Free Lessons

© Copyright 2021 Social Studies School Service

You're receiving this email because you elected to subscribe to our newsletter. We never send unsolicited email, nor do we sell our list. All trademarks are the property of their respective owners

Unsubscribe from all emails | Update Subscription Preferences

Social Studies School Service, PO Box 802, Culver City, CA 90232, USA, [REDACTED]

Unsubscribe Manage preferences