Good afternoon!
I'm hosting a "Listening Circle" experience on race and bias at Centennial High School with some of their staff this Friday afternoon at 3:00-4:00 pm. I'd love to invite you guys to participate. We would leave ALC around 2:30 and join up with their staff at the CHS library. This is a restorative practice in action, and I'd love for you guys to examine this subject as a staff with CHS. I'm attaching the letter we sent to the CHS faculty. Please reply to me individually if you want to participate and we'll make it happen!

Good afternoon!

It was such a pleasure to meet with you guys yesterday. I'm so grateful for the work you guys are doing to support WCS and PHS students. What a special school!

Thanks for the invitation into your team to help with restorative practices and making PHS a safe, supportive high school. It's an unprecedented time, and I believe this work is more important than ever. We have to support our students' physical, emotional, and mental wellness, and restorative practices is such a powerful framework to put students at the center of the work.

One of our student mantras at the ALC this year is "Nothing about me, without me", meaning students are never left out of the process in their own problem solving and decision making. Proactive RP work allows for responsive work to happen WELL.

Just to recap, here's the things we discussed and I want to send you info on:

1. Restorative Practices in WCS – Please see the attached document for my proposal to secondary schools this year. You will see a "menu of options" on ways I can help support your school. It's often helpful to have a neutral party in conducting conferences, and I'm always available to step in and mediate between students/teachers/etc.
2. Faculty and staff trainings – If you guys want to send me all the faculty meeting dates you'd like me to attend, I can write out a proposed plan for training. Invite me to any and all you wish! I'm available to you guys. I'll put some of the theories and practices into action (social discipline window, fair process, compass of shame, etc.), do some circle simulation and problem solving, and more deeply explore the restorative practices continuum.
3. Listening Circles – Check out the attached documents. We can hold listening circles based on any needs in your school. It's a good way to respond to student and parent complaints and to things like the reports on the dearestwcs account, etc.
4. Whole Child Supports Schoology Classroom – I've got a hub of resources for "Whole Child Supports" including SEL, Trauma Informed/ACEs, and Restorative Practices materials in a Schoology class. The RP folders are full of great ideas and guidance. The code is BXV5-VM2B-57XBG.

I've got you guys down for Sept 15. See you then!
