What WCS Parents Should Expect Right Now:

Elementary Parents

Help from teachers with most anything, as requested: for example, a daily schedule of assignments for a particular student.
Class newsletters.
Opportunities to improve grades (in grades 2-6).
Supplementary class materials, including some use of video (not video conferencing).

Middle and High Schools

Anything for a particular student, including
Weekly communications, including weekly pacing guide
Videos (including some video conferencing)
Google site resources
Google classroom.
Opportunities to improve grades
Beginning Monday, a weekly schedule for interaction with teachers by course.
Beginning Monday, “flipped classroom” opportunities with teachers by course (watch recordings, then students attend Q & A sessions)

Yes, that's my plan. Our earlier remote learning plan had it posted in two adjacent boxes. I'm planning to do something similar.

Nancy, we talked about this this morning. Denise and Leigh are both writing theirs up for me, and I'm going to compare them, in part based on what you said, to make sure we're as consistent as we can be knowing that there are some differences.

Jason, I'm trying to capture all of the items that have been provided to students and would like to post this on my WCSB Facebook page. Could you please take a look and let me know if you think I need to make any changes? Thanks. Please see below—my items were documented from discussion at last night's meeting.

I'm not sure if the lists are as parallel as they can be, especially when describing resources and technology.

Thanks,
NNG
